"A tornado is a local disturbance, caused by a comparatively high temperature, excessive humidity, a low barometer, and a cold overcurrent of air. It is impossible to predict them, as they just happen and then are gone. In them is concentrated within a small space all the energy of a thunder storm that might be spread over a large area. Their paths are rarely more than fifteen miles long and half a mile is the average width."

When the tornado passes over the roof of a house the higher pressured air inside explodes. According to Prof. Cox. hickens that have ventured into the path of a tornado have been known lose all their feathers.

MONEY IN CAMPAIGNS.

If a sensational charge is made in the United of publicity. Senator Borah knew that when he accused Gen. Wood and Gov. Lowden of corrupt ing the Republican campaign with money. Before any voter jumps off the high bridge let him ask himself a few questions.

Is it important that candidates should be pre sented to the people? If so, how is it to be done? Is it permissible for a candidate to address personal letters to the voters? It would cost a half million dollars to send one letter to each voter of the United States.

Is it permissible to hold public meetings? That involves hall rent, printing, bands, etc. Is it permissible for speakers to travel from place to place -at more expense? Is it permissible to maintain headquarters, use legitimate advertising, get out printed matter, hire men to distribute it, employ necessary organization workers, etc., etc.? It all costs money-hundreds of thousands of dollars -and it may be that not a cent of it is spent for any other purpose than that of giving the voters a chance to look the candidate over.

Is it permissible to employ watchers at the polls to see that primaries and elections are not stolen? What are the alternatives to these expensive public campaigns? One that a combine, with very little money spent legitimately, will control without letting the voters in at all. Another is that the public officials paid with public money, iffliated with political organizations, will control through the offices which they hold for the public. There is not much money spent in popular campaigns in the south. Under a Republican administration the federal officeholders bring in the delegates. Under a Democratic administration the Democratic officeholders bring in the delegates.

Money is used. It is public money. It pays the salaries of the officeholders. The officeholders keep their places and draw their salaries by deoverthrown. Money for a popular campaign is the territory of a member from external aggresraised by supporters of the candidate. #### MORE TRUTH ABOUT THE WAR.

Rear Admiral Plunkett's testimony before the senate naval inquiry is sufficiently striking, we nope, to reach the public, which is relapsing into its between-wars indifference to national defense. It discloses some truths which official optimism and jingoism unite to suppress, whence grows the mischievous legend behind which every attack on preparedness is delivered. Listen to the gabble of Daniels of Bryan, of a thousand less conspicator Capper of Kansas and other pacifists, and a which has about as much relation to reality as a comance of "high life" in the "Nursemaid's Own " has to life itself. Admiral Plunkett tells the plain truth about the pattle of Jutland, a truth foreshadowed, by the way, in the smaller fight off Coronel. He does so ot to discredit British gallantry, for that cannot be done, but to show what actually stood between us and "paying the indemnities" imposed upon Germany at this time, As Lord Fisher and Sir Percy Scott have been telling the British what civilian interference did to the greatest navy on earth, so Sims and his colleagues are telling us what the sentimental pacifism of our own civilian editor of the navy department da to prevent the nation from preparing to meet the war toward which fate was clearly hurrying the nation.

The responsibility for the persistent and radical redness of the nation to enter the war back to the press and public leaders, to conand to previous executives, to the people in measure, for many years, But the heaviest esponsibility rested on President Wilson, who was in full command during the years in which the we would ask, judging from his heredity and early European conflagration was writing in letters of training, and the traditions of his parentage, is there blood and fire the warning to us to prepare. #### FIGHTERS FOR THE M. V. L.

The Municipal Voters' league was organized by leorge E. Cole, who was one of the men who narched with Sherman to the sea. Even advanc ing years have not taken all the fight out of that was even tempered and without fear, and he got results. John M. Harlan in his great days could make the most formidable ward meeting orderly and attentive by shaking two big fists, which, his auditors knew, he was ready to use. Walter Fisher was a fighter, and there were others, and they formed the strength of the M. V. L.

The M. V. L. was organized to get the city out of the hands of a gang the members of which States senate it gets publicity—the widest sort the citizens had threatened to lynch. There never has been a time when the league was not against such influences, and there have been few times when the influences were not ready to destroy the league if they could.

Just as the league reached its lowest ebb the influences which it has fought and which have Praise Helène, proud Cassandra or Marie fought it decided that the time had come to put it out of the way. The very fact that the attack the league has, the new need it has for fighting Teach them to spark and kindle like her eye; blood, and the new necessity of public support.

It is a lonesome service the men of the league perform. They are attacked as malign exploiters advancing bad purposes with pious pretenses. How else would a gang attack a public reform or ganization? That is learned in the kindergarten of politics. If the men trying to carry on the work look around they find only an indifferent public. It can easily take the heart out of them. The league has been exercising patience under attack, but what the city needs is some fighters back of it. The attack on it has a purpose. A

> Frederick O'Brien set out from Tahiti and sailing 700 miles north and west debarked on the island of Hivahoa, where he spent one year gathering ma terials for his now popular "White Shadows." Darwin is responsible for the theory that the Marquesan islands, of which Hivahoa is one, originally were part of the Asiatic or African mainland and were inhabited by Caucasians. Perhaps the mainland bridged the Pacific ocean between Asia and South America. When it sank into the sea, leaving a few mountain tops as islands, there remained bands of marooned Caucasians cut off for thousands of years from contact with their fellow men.

Our interest lies in the health lessons which O'Brien draws from the history of these people, who were numerous, strong, and healthy until the white man introduced his diseases among them about 100 years ago. The best way to tell the story in this limited space is to quote rather freely.

"I have seen many go as Aumia has gone," said Father David. "All these ovable races are dying. All Polynesia is passing. A hundred years ago there were 160,000 Marquesans in these is-lands. Twenty years ago there were Today I am convinced there are not 2,100.

Aumia and her friend, Talpi, had consumption and the way they were going would be followed by many of the neighbors.

'An American whaling captain sent ashore a sailor far advanced in consumption. The natives nursed him. The germs of this disease thus got a foothold at Fetuhiva and since they have carried off more than four-fifths of the race and today they are killing the remnants. "The white man brought the Chinese and with them leprosy and opium. Smallpox came with a Peruvian slave

The best life insurance writers will advise you to keep hold of your government insur-ance, because they know that the strength of the United States government is the security for these policies, and they know that the premiums are lower than those charged by any company for participating insurance with similar benefits. You should reinstate your full insurance and carry it until you want to change it into one of the permanent policies now being issued by the government. Your information about the order is too indefinite for us to advise you properly on your inquiry. We believe that if the man had been entitled to a regular discharge one would have been given to him. # The Sheraton Davenport A Colby Value

Colby's introduce a splendid Davenport. Offered as a special value to people who know and appreciate sincere furniture.

The upholstery is high-grade curled hair; double stuffed and hand laid over oil tempered steel springs.

There is no piecework, no cotton, floss, or other nearly good substitute for real upholstery about this model.

More than that, the seat cushions are made of small compartments, each filled with fine white down.

This sofa is low enough to use out in a room with the new davenport tables, and comfortable enough to more than satisfy every desire. A six foot man will find it long enough to recline on, and deep enough in which to rest.

The Sheraton is a typical Colby value, priced much below the cost of an evening gown, and it will lend distinction and luxury to your living room for at least a generation.

From experience we know that few cane davenports are comfortable, and most overstuffed davenports offered in sales are gross in outline. This model represents refinements, real workmanship, and good value.

Selfishness

TATURE gives this instinct, perhaps, for self-preservation. But nature A also has given to us the impulse of regard for others. The blending of these two forces we call enlightened selfishness. It spreads from those near and dear to us till, as reason and feeling develop, it includes all mankind.

Selfishness becomes enlightened by human congregation. It is not possible for us to live in isolation; we must commune—work and play together. Hence the beneficence of the harmony that comes of adjustment to our surroundings, when personal benefit makes for the common good.

They who think deeply realize that what profits the people as a whole must reflect its benefit on the individual. To see your own good in the welfare of the mass-whether it be a business, a nation, or the world itselfis to possess the enlightened selfishness that advances civilization.

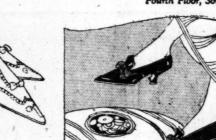

This Store practices the enlightened selfishness that manifests itself in terms of service

A Good Worker Deserves Good Tools

THE Tools of the Home-Maker are just as important to her as tools are to any other worker. Her work is even more important than that of any other member of the family, because on her the entire family depends.

When she chooses her tools here, she is not likely to make a mistake. For one thing, we are very particular about the merchandise that is brought into the Household Utilities Section. For another, the salespeople here are trained to assist those whom they serve, and their advice is frequently valuable. If new "tools for the home" are needed, this is a good time to get them-and here is a good place.

The March Sale of Household Utilities is still in progressonly three days more.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] Washington, D. Every solution so far presented seems to have serious defects, they declared, man probably had removed and unless some new and better plan can be devised, it appears to them that Liberty bonds will have to stay below par until the ordinary laws of finance come to their rescue.

Senator Smoot, of Utah, recognized as one of the leading financial authorunder Lieut, John Norton, ities in congress, declared no plan yet roposed would help the situation. Terrific Battle on Banks of Pripet and Marshes.

WARSAW, March 28 .- [By the Associated Press.]—Polish armored trains fought pitched battles against the bolshevik monitors and other fighting craft on the Pripet river during the bolshevik thrust, which was designed to gain control of additional links of railroad extending from Homel to Kalenkowicz and Mozir.

The bolsheviki put down artillery preparation, which was followed by the opening of a barrage from the river boats and then infantry attacks. The bolshevik drive has been unsuccessful, according to a communication issued today. The communication announces that the Polish military au-thorities, after eight days of fighting at various points on a 600 kilometer front, see signs of weakness in the long planned spring drive of the bol-sheviki, which was designed to break the hold of the Poles upon the entire

Takes Up Job of Ending Ruhr Basin War.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[By Special Cable.] BERLIN, March 28.-The new Muel ler cabinet met today and received word that the General Federation of Labor was satisfied with the slate. Thereupon the cabinet took up its duties, and its first act was to au thorize two comm tion with the war in the Ruhr basin.

The first commission, composed of Representative Oskar Roth, Majority Socialist, Otto Brass, Independent Socialist, and Vice President Grossman of the General Federation of Labor, was sent to Muenster to meet the Retarmy leader in an attempt to stop the fighting.

Seek Food in Holland.

The second commission, consisting of two members of the assembly and President Doerf of the transportation workers, was sent to Holland to ar range in behalf of the Ebert govern-ment for the sending of food direct to the Ruhr district.

The new cabinet is considered one o remarkable strength, considering the obstacles Herr Mueller had to over come. Attention is called to the fact that it includes only one Jew, which it is hoped will silence attacks of as anti-Semitic nature which handicapped other cabinets.

RECEPTION IS LUKEWARM

BERLIN, March 27 .- [By the Asset lated Press.]—The new cabinet which it was expected would secure three-fourths majority at tomor row's sitting of the national assembly has met with a lukewarm reception even from the coalition press, and the eleventh hour elimination of Capt Fisher Cuno as finance minister is especially criticized in quarters which ooked for great benefits to the coun try from his experience and busines ability in the resumption of comme cial relations with foreign countries Capt. Cuno's decision is believed to have been largely influenced by the urgent request of the Hamburg-American steamship company, begging him not to desert the company at the moment when the rebuilding of its busi ness was at stake

The prevailing impression is that the deration of labor is the controlling actor in the present crisis and that Herr Leg'en, president of that organ ization, is dangling his power over the head of the new ministry.

See End of Ruhr War.

DUSSELDORF, March 28 .- [By the Associated Press.]-A speedy settlement of the warfare in the Ruhr min-ing and industrial district is hoped for by the members of the workers' execu-tive committee here as the result of the proposal drafted by the general conference of workmen in Essen yes terday.

The proposals provide that both the eichsfehr and the workmen aroun Wesel and elsewhere cease hostilities and each force retire a certain distance, but that the workmen be per nitted to retain their arms. According to the agreement, the settlement pre-viously reached at Bielefeld would be enforced, with the addition of the lauses just cited.

Three representatives of the government arrived today from Berlin. They went immediately into conference with the workmen's central committee. Il s said, however, that they did not come to conduct negotiations, but to investigate the situation.

Germany Building Army?

PARIS, March 28.—Charges that the nilitary party in Germany has been secretly working on a reorganization olan for the German army are made by Le Journal today. New York, March 28.—[Special.]— James J. Corbett is positive the contemplated fight between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier will not be a one-sided affair. In fact, he believes the French champion possesses the necessary qualifications to battle the heavyweight titleholder.

was the opinion expressed by the one time heavy champ after spar-ring this afternoon with Carpentier. "I want it distinctly understood that am not attempting to pick the winner of the Carpentier-Dempsey fight," said Corbett when asked for his impressions of the Frenchman, "but Carpentier showed such wonderful form during the brief period I was sparring with him that I am convinced he will prove a worthy opponent for Dempsey, and we all know how great a fighten

However, I do not want to create Dempsey is clever and that I am pick-ing a winner for the fight. What I emphasized is the fact that I elleve reports that the battle will be uninteresting because Carpentier is not heavy enough are not well founded. Clever and Shifty.

"The brief sparring I did with the Frenchman demonstrated to my satisfaction that he will not be a ready target for any man's blows. Carpentier knows how to handle himself, and in less than sixty seconds of our little sparring match Carpentle showed that he has the art of side stepping and ducking down to s

Carpentier will enter upon his career as a silent drama actor Tuesday in the studio of the Robertson-Cole Film company. Fort Lee, N. J. According to the schedule arranged by the moving picture officials, Carpentier will be an extremely busy individual for the suc-

The purpose back of all this activity is to get the picture completed as soon s possible. Carpentier, as the hero, and the moving picture company, as the producers, have a mutual desire for this result. Georges is scheduled to commence a boxing exhibition tour May 3 under direction of Jack Curiey.

We Won't Be Hurried

We are not going to let anything hurry us unduly in turning out Capper & Capper Custom Shirts.

You ought to be glad of that, if you are getting some of them or contemplate doing so.

We are going to give each shirt the attention it would have if it were the only one we were making.

Great shirts like ours make this care necessary.

We planned for a big pressure of business when we were getting ready for our recent shirt announcement.

We thought we had provided for every possibility.

But the response exceeded even our highest expectations.

It showed how ready Chicago men were for what we are doing for them.

We are all right now; taking care of everything in fine shape.

But for a while it is going to take us a little longer than we intended to get orders out.

So get yours in early. You don't want us to hurry your work, and neither does the other fellow want his humied.

Well! Well! Some Men Are Too Good to Live-With!

"IN SEARCH OF A SINNER."

By Mae Tinée.

It seems, judging from the experi ence of Mrs. Chadbourne, that some men are too good to live, let alone live with. [Never have met the brand, myself.]

Mr. Chadbourne was terribly, tire somely unmaittingly good; terribly, tiresomely, unremittingly attentive to his young wife, whose health he guarded with terrible, tiresome, unre mitting solicitude.

Good little girls, he told her fondly and fussily, got up at 7 o'clock in the morning and did their exercises. Good little girls drank their cup of hot water with every meal.

A perpetual tut-tutter was Mr. Chad bourne. Tut tut, one did this, and tut, tut, one must not do that. At last he died. At last!

Though a perfectly nice young woman, Mrs. Chadbourne was a trific cracked—as who could blame her—on the subject of good men. A sinner was what she wanted to draw next time. So, clad in the most fascinating mourning and accompanied by sympathetic Katie, her maid—who had also known and suffered from the late departed she set sail for New York.

To an astonished and disapproving brother in law and his pretty and flab She was out for a "live one"—the worse the better. And, in Central park by dint of a stolen flower and a come hither eye, she met Jack Garrison from Denver.

Mr. Garrison turned out to be a de cent chap and a pal of the brother in law—and Georgiana loved him. How then to make the tame man wild? For another good one she would not have! All I have to say is, watch Geor giana work. By the time she's through her problem is, how to get the wild also in dressy blouses of chiffon, orchid man tame. Poor dear, she had fancied tint is particularly favored just at pres that good men didn't know how to love!

SAN DIEGO, Cal.-[Special Corre spondence.]--A frequent visitor to Cali-fornia imparted the information to me that eggs and chickens were always good here, fresh and highly palatable. on: The big chicken ranches.

In the last annual report of the University of California experiment sta-tion there is the following on "Home Preservatives": "In an extensive sts. Lloyd found that the three best ways of preserving fresh eggs at home are (1) submersion in a solution of 5 per cent waterglass and 95 per cent boiled water; (2) in a solution of lime water and salt; (3) anointing the surface of each egg with lard or one of the grease preservatives. The method of anointing eggs with grease is limited in practical value, however, because satisfactory results may not be secured unless the pre-served eggs are stored in a rather pol, even temperature."

Even in waterglass they should be kept cool. Various methods of coating eggs, as with paraffin, waterglass ste, and packing in dry salt, are con ned here as worthless.

HARNESS AND HORSES

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Before the big spring rush of plowing and planting begins careful attention should be given all harness, and closes in the back and the body and the horses need proper handling after a winter's idleness. Both general and The pattern, 959 truck farmers will save themselves a great deal of trouble by getting things in order before the season's work be-gine. Mending, cleaning, and oiling of harness now will save trouble later

Dirt and sweat that collect on the narness cause sores on the animal and rot the leather rapidly. The harness soon goes to pieces if not oiled at least once a year. Wash with saddle soap and soft water and dry before oiling. Neat's foot oil is best, but most any of the animal or vegetable oils will do. Just dipping the leather is a poor method. The oil should be rubbed thoroughly into the leather.

Collars are the chief sources of trou ble, particularly in the spring, when olts and horses that have been idle all winter are being put to work. Ill itting collars-too large or too tightwill in most cases cause sore shoulders even on horses accustomed to working every day. Chafing of the shoulders is sed principally by a loose collar If harness is not olled regularly, the leather surface of the collar next to the shoulder becomes hard and breaks leaving a roughened surface to irri tate the skin.

When animals are first put to work in the spring their shoulders are ten der. This is especially true of young or fat horses. Such animals should be handled carefully until their shoulders become hardened. Salt dissolved in cold water is commonly used to bathe the shoulders at night when they come in from work. This tends to harden the skin and render it less susceptible to injury.

Middle west farmers find one of the most effective means of preventing shoulder trouble is to watch the animal closely while at work. When rest ing in the field, raise the collar and wipe the dust and sweat from the shoulder. Then, by using salt water at night, little trouble with scalding or chafing will occur. After a collar gall has once formed it is difficult to cure. A practice fa vored among farmers is to rip the collar and remove some of the pad ling directly over the gall, leaving depression deep enough so that the leather will not touch the skin.

Who Discovered Told by a Merchant

"... Economy is getting the most of the best for the least. In other words—Ricoro!"

"The Steward of the Rotary Club is the man you are looking for!" declared the Merchant.

"We were having an Economy Luncheon' at the Club one day -paper napkins and various scientific foods doped up by ex-perts to beat the H. C. L. Well, afterward, they brought around some cigars that didn't look economical-and, by George, when we lighted up, they tasted like a million dollars!

"The Chairman, who had prepared a paper on Economy, seemed a bit uneasy when he overheard remarks about the 'expensive looking cigars.'

"Steward!'he called.'Steward! There's a mistake! This was supposed to be an Economy lunch-and here you've dealt out high-priced cigars.'

"'Yes, Sir,'replied the Steward, But those Ricoros only cost two for 25c at the United, and-

"'Two for 25 cents!' exclaimed the Chairman, 'Great guns! I guess that answers the calamity howlers who wail about the dwindling purchasing power of the dollar. Boy, run over to the United and get another box of Ricoros!""

Sooner or later you'll discover Ricoro. You'll discover Ricoro's bland and balmy tropic fragrance and you'll settle down to it for life. You'll buy Ricoro by the box, just like thousands of other satisfied Ricoro discoverers. And you'll buy it at the price of ordinary domestic cigars, because it comes from Porto Rico duty free!

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & CO

Lovely new neckwear-organdie vestees radiant tinted, the crispest of collars, all that is fresh and new in complete collections. First Floor, North.

Apparel Certain of Continued Success Interprets the Distinguishing Traits of Fashion in Unusual Ways

At once in the vogue and apart from the usual is the apparel presented here. A combination that meets instant approval these later spring days. And it is a combination made possible only by that skillful, unerring selection which goes into the assembling of every individual assortment presented here.

Concerning These New Suits, Coats and Frocks for Women

Each group evidences this fine skill in selection. Superior workmanship lends distinction to the simplest modes. Other styles attest an unusual skill in elaboration. Line and detail are always in harmony. Fabrics of the finer qualities are always employed. In view of this, pricing is as moderate as is consistently possible. Certain of these groups thoroughly representative are featured.

Women's Tailored Suits, $100

From among many modes the suit sketched at the left has been selected. A clever line is noted at the side, emphasized by braid and buttons. The coat differs from the usual in that the lines grow straighter.

Women's Frocks of Taffeta, $100

An entirely new springtime silhouette is east by these charming frocks. The bouffancy of the skirt grows less and tapers into a restrained hem. Row on row of Vandyked points on the skirt bring out this new line. Center. Wraps Gracefully Draped, $125

Fortuna cloth in tones of beaver, black and taupe fashions this wrap sketched at the right. A loop cleverly placed accomplishes this new draping. And that it may be worn appropriately for the street, a scarf collar is used.

Among Other New Wraps, $85 to $110

There are wraps of tricotines, more tailored in effect, at $85. In many of these street wraps light linings give a springlike touch. Cashmytine is used in certain of these wraps on the Dolman lines with success. $110.

Fourth Floor, North.

WITH these days the springtime season comes into some of its most interesting phases. And everywhere throughout the store is evidence of this.

Fashions reflect a gayer measure in their new lines, their bright, sparkling colorings. Constantly incoming collections bring merchandise, fresh and new. And always is there noted that quality, that character, which have won for this store, from a discriminating patronage, a genuine appreciation and fine regard.

Long Gloves Much in Demand Are Here in Complete and Varied Assortments

From France have come shipments bringing extensive assortments of long kid gloves. Special provision made in ample time results in a plentiful supply of long silk gloves.
